WHEREAS, the County of San Benito and District have, through their authorized representatives, met and considered potential exchange of property taxes;

WHEREAS, it has been mutually determined that District requires no allocation of property taxes for areas to come under District's jurisdiction inasmuch as there will be no exchange of service responsibilities;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY FOUND, DETERMINED and ORDERED that this Resolution shall be, and it does hereby, constitute District's agreement to accept a negotiated exchange of property tax revenues whereby no taxes will be allocated to District in any jurisdictional changes from January 1, 1978, for the period effectively approved in said negotiations and hereby ending January 1, 1982, at which time District and County will have reviewed the effect hereof and decide whether the determinations made herein should continue or whether negotiations should be reopened on property tax revenues.
